

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Scholarship Reception

10th August, 2017

Bank of Bermuda
FOUNDATION

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Education Committee Members

DENNISTUCKER

Chairman

RENEE BULLOCK-CANN

Head of Retail Banking and Wealth Management and Marketing, HSBC

NEA DIXON

Senior Consultant, Performance Solutions Ltd.

MARGARET HALLETT

Retired Principal, Somersfield Academy

CRAIG TUCKER

Retired Banking Professional

KIM PRATT

Senior Trust Officer, Butterfield Trust (Bermuda) Limited

TIM MARSHALL

Consultant, Marshall Diel & Myers Limited

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Sir John W. Cox University Scholarship for Postgraduate Studies 2017

Awarded annually to a Bermudian pursuing Postgraduate education overseas and is valued at BD$30,000 per annum for up to four years. This year three 1 year scholarships are being offered to deserving applicants.

The 2017 Bank of Bermuda Foundation Sir John W. Cox University Scholarship for Postgraduate Studies has been awarded to Mark Amaral, Asha Hoyte and Morrissa Tucker.

Mark Amaral – PhD Security Science - University College London

Mark received a Bachelor of Science with a major in Biological Science and a minor in Sociology from the University of Guelph, a Master's Degree in Forensic Science from the University of Strathclyde in Scotland and is now pursuing a PhD at the University College London. His most memorable accomplishment was being invited to deliver a keynote presentation on his research at the Australian and New Zealand Forensic Science Society 23rd International Symposium on the Forensic Sciences.

Asha Hoyte – MSc Psychology of Education - University College London

Asha received a Bachelor of Science with Honours in Psychology from the University of Kent. She has a distinct passion for the subject of psychology of education. She plans to use the knowledge from educational and child psychology to create multidimensional curriculum that takes into account children's developmental trajectory as well as their individual psychological wellbeing.

Morrissa Tucker – MA Social Work - Rutgers University

Morrissa is pursuing her final year of a Master's degree and plans to obtain a certification in Alcohol and Drug Abuse Counseling. In May 2016, she graduated with a BA in Psychology from Kean University. Her aspiration is to make a positive impact on the lives of at risk young people, helping them to integrate back into society, by developing programmes to bring a positive outlook on their behavior.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Eldon H. Trimingham Business Post Graduate Studies Scholarship 2017

Awarded annually to a Bermudian proceeding with post graduate business studies overseas and is valued at BD$30,000 per annum for up to two years. This year two 1 year scholarships are being offered to deserving applicants.

The 2017 Bank of Bermuda Foundation Eldon H. Trimingham Business Scholarship for post graduate studies has been awarded to Tyler Owen and Dayshalae Smith.

Tyler Owen – MBA Business - Ivey Business School at the University of Western Ontario

Tyler received a Bachelor of Science, Risk Management and Insurance from St. John's University, completed The Royal Military Academy Sandhurst Territorial Army Commissioning Course and has most recently been employed by XL Catlin as Assistant Vice President, Professional Lines. Tyler is married and has two children and looks forward to completing his Master's in Business Administration.

Dayshalae Smith – MA Accounting - University of Birmingham

Dayshalae graduated with a Bachelor in Accounting and Finance from Birmingham City University and is currently registered with New York's Accountancy Board, having one more exam to complete, in order to receive her CPA designation. She hopes to gain work experience in the KPMG UK office following completion of her Master's, before returning to Bermuda.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Financial Services Scholarship 2017

Offered as a commitment to advancing and developing Bermudians within the financial services industry in Bermuda. This scholarship is granted annually and is valued at BD$40,000, disbursed over the final two years of University. This year two worthy applicants are being offered the award.

This year's winners are James Amaral and Shallette Spencer.

James Amaral – BA Science – International Business & Economics - The University of New Hampshire

James is a graduate of Mount Saint Agnes and has just completed his second year at the University of New Hampshire. He is majoring in International Business and Economics with a minor in kinesiology. He is an avid sportsman, currently sailing for his university team and has represented Bermuda overseas.

Shallette Spencer – BA Actuarial Science - Georgia State University

Shallette is in her final year at Georgia State, where she is pursuing a BA in Actuarial Science. She plans to complete all of the required actuarial exams following her graduation from Georgia State. Her most memorable accomplishment was receiving the Most Outstanding Actuarial Science Graduate Award from the Bermuda College.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Centennial Trust Scholarship 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation's Centennial Trust Scholarship is being offered to a student pursuing undergraduate studies overseas. It provides financial support of BD$12,000 per annum for up to 4 years.

This year's winner is Ava-Lynn Mayer.

Ava-Lynn Mayer – BA Communications, Media, Culture & Politics - Oxford Brookes University

Ava is a recent graduate of BHS, where she was Head Student and worked collaboratively with students and their link to the administration at BHS. She hopes to pursue a career as a multimedia journalist.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Sir Henry Tucker University Scholarship 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation's Sir Henry Tucker University Scholarship is awarded annually. The value of the Scholarship is BD$30,000. Its purpose is to provide a financial award for a period not exceeding four years to a student who has outstanding scholastic ability, leadership qualities, devotion to duty and fellowship, together with ability in athletic, cultural and other non-academic pursuits. The successful candidate must proceed with undergraduate studies on a full-time basis at an overseas university approved by Bank of Bermuda Foundation.

The 2017 winner is Zachary Myers.

Zachary Myers – BA (Hons) English Language - University of Cambridge, King's College

Zachary is a recent graduate of Warwick Academy, where he was Deputy Head Boy and received numerous awards. His most memorable accomplishment was receiving an offer to study at the University of Cambridge. He is a passionate student, with a genuine love for learning. He enjoys helping others achieve their goals.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Sir Henry Tucker Scholarship Education Grants 2017

Up to three Education Grants of BD$8,000 per annum are awarded annually to three runners-up for a period not exceeding four years.

This year's winners are Hana Bushara, Dylan Muldoon and Casey Schuler.

Hana Bushara – BA International Studies with a minor in Italian Studies - St. Lawrence University

Hana is a graduate of the United World College of the Adriatic in Italy. Her most memorable accomplishment was being accepted to UWC which was the most beautiful, challenging, and life-changing experience of her life. She values the importance of collaboration, and actively looks for ways to make the best of environments and communities that she encounters. She hopes to one day pursue a degree in Education.

Dylan Muldoon – BA Chemistry - Bates College

Dylan is a graduate of Choate Rosemary Hall, USA. While at his time at Choate Dylan was on the Deans list and captain of their Squash team. His most memorable accomplishment was spending the summer researching and surveying islands in order to help save the Bermuda Skink. He is looking forward to playing squash on a collegiate level.

Casey Schuler – Bachelor of Arts - Georgetown University

Casey is a graduate of Saltus Grammar school. Her proudest accomplishment was when she raised almost $9,000 for childhood cancer research, by shaving her head for the St. Baldrick's Foundation. She is grateful for all the opportunities she has had growing up in Bermuda.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation John D. Campbell Arts Scholarship 2017

Awarded annually. Its purpose is to provide financial support of BD$30,000 per annum over a period not exceeding four years to a student who is proceeding with undergraduate studies in the arts on a full time basis outside Bermuda.

The Scholarship is specifically for candidates studying Visual, Performing and Applied Arts including, but not limited to: (a) Visual Arts - drawing, painting, sculpture, ceramics, printmaking, photography, video and filmmaking; (b) Performing Arts - dance, music, opera and theatre; (c) Applied Arts - architecture, industrial design, graphic design, fashion design, interior design and decorative art.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation's John D. Campbell Arts Scholarship has been awarded to Amy Palmer.

Amy Palmer – BA (Hons) Architecture - University of Kent

Amy is a recent graduate of Saltus Grammar School. One of her most memorable experiences was taking part in an Outward Bound Ultimate Camping Expedition in Wales, in August 2015. That experience helped her to gain a new appreciation of the value of teamwork, strength and confidence. Amy has a passion for architecture and plans, in the future, to continue and pursue a Master's degree.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Donald P. Lines Award for Scholastic Achievement 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation's Donald P. Lines Award is granted annually. The purpose is to provide financial support for one academic year to a student pursuing a degree overseas.

The Donald P. Lines Award is valued at BD$15,000.

The Donald P. Lines Award winner for this year is Ceola Wade.

Ceola Wade – BSc Medical Science - University of Exeter

Ceola is currently at the University of Exeter, pursuing a health research degree. Her most memorable accomplishment was completing a 10 mile multi-terrain race. From a young age, most of Ceola's volunteer and work experiences have been in the healthcare industry in Bermuda, which exposed her to various opportunities. She plans to go to medical school to specialize in pediatric emergency medicine or pediatric oncology.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Chairman's Awards for Scholastic Achievement 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Chairman's Awards for Scholastic Achievement are granted annually. Their purpose is to provide financial support for one academic year to students who are pursuing a degree overseas. This year, the Foundation is offering five awards.

The Chairman's Awards are valued at BD$10,000 each.

The winners are Jonique Crockwell, Nia Dailey, Jameko Gomes, Jessie Thomas and Mikayla Wilson.

Jonique Crockwell – BA Biochemistry – Liverpool John Moores University

Jonique is a graduate of the Berkeley Institute and is currently attending Liverpool John Moores University, pursuing a degree in Biochemistry. Her most memorable accomplishment was preaching at the Salvation Army Church as a girl guide. The experience helped her to increase her confidence level. She is a multifaceted individual looking to enhance Bermuda's health industry through her studies.

Nia Dailey – BA Psychology Pre-Medicine - Spelman College

Nia has recently returned from a Rotary Exchange year in Peru. She had the life changing experience of travelling all over Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia and became fluent in Spanish. It was by far the hardest and longest journey she has taken but she is so grateful for the experience.

Jameko Gomes – BA Networking and IT Security - University of Ontario Institute of Technology

Jameko recently graduated from Bermuda College with an Associate of Science – Computer Information System. He is a hardworking student who is dedicated and motivated to be successful in his career choice.

Jessie Thomas – BA Physical Education and Teaching - Anglia Ruskin University, UK

Jessie recently graduated from Saltus Grammar School. She received the Jane Maddocks Endeavor Award upon graduating. This award is for a student with consistent effort and determined approach. Jessie believes that no matter what the struggle, hard work and determination always pays off in the end.

Mikayla Wilson – BA Dance with a minor in Sports/ Entertainment Management - Point Park University

Mikayla graduated from the Grier School's duel programme with high honours. She would like people to know that her passion is dance and without the support of family and friends she would not be where she is today.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Vocational Scholarship 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation is offering this scholarship to young Bermudians to encourage them to go overseas and undergo a technical or vocational training programme. The Committee will focus on an applicant who is pursuing a vocation that is practical and needed in Bermuda including the trades, hospitality, mechanics, piloting, nursing, culinary arts, caregiving, landscaping, cosmetology, hairdressing.

This year's winners are Cameron Forbes and Kaisha Simons.

Cameron Forbes – Baking & Pastry - Johnson & Wales

Cameron received his Associates in Culinary Arts from the Bermuda College and has been working as a Pastry Chef at Marcus Restaurant for the past 2 years. He is thankful for the experience working at Marcus' has afforded him and the opportunity to meet many different people. He looks forward to continuing his education at Johnson & Wales.

Kaisha Simons – Baking & Pastry - Johnson & Wales

Kaisha is a recent graduate of Cedarbridge Academy and Bermuda College. She was the first dual-enrollment student to complete an Associate of Culinary Arts with Merit from Bermuda College. She was also the Valedictorian at her graduation from CedarBridge. She believes that life is too short to just settle for less so she always dreams big and aims to achieve success.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Joseph C. H. Johnson Scholarship 2017

Bank of Bermuda Foundation's Joseph C. H. Johnson Scholarship is awarded annually to a student who is in his/her final year of secondary school in Bermuda and is valued at BD$30,000 per annum for up to 4 years. Candidates are nominated by their school Principal. One candidate is nominated from each school. The successful candidate must proceed with undergraduate studies on a full-time basis at Bermuda College or an overseas university approved by Bank of Bermuda Foundation.

The 2017 Bank of Bermuda Foundation Joseph C.H. Johnson University Scholarship has been awarded to Aliana King.

Aliana King – BA Media Arts – Character Animation – Southern Adventist University

Aliana recently graduated from Bermuda Institute. She has a passion for modelling, art, photography and videography. Besides winning this scholarship, Aliana's most memorable accomplishment was creating an organisation to raise money to help build a school in Haiti for the Feed My Lambs Ministries.

Mikayla Jacome – Bachelor of Business Management & Organisational Studies - King's University College

Mikaya recently graduated from Saltus Grammar School. During her time there she was a Prefect and received a number of awards including achieving 10 G.C.S.E.'s at B or higher level. Mikayla plans to become a CPA.

Ava-Lynn Mayer – BA Communications, Media, Culture & Politics - Oxford Brookes University

Ava is a recent graduate of BHS, where she was Head Student and worked collaboratively with students and their link to the administration at BHS. She hopes to pursue a career as a multimedia journalist.

Kaisha Simons – Baking & Pastry - Johnson & Wales

Kaisha is a recent graduate of Cedarbridge Academy and Bermuda College. She was the first dual-enrollment student to complete an Associate of Culinary Arts with Merit from Bermuda College. She was also the Valedictorian at her graduation from CedarBridge. She believes that life is too short to just settle for less so she always dreams big and aims to achieve success.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Joseph C. H. Johnson Nominee Awards 2017

The Joseph C. H. Johnson Nominee Awards are presented annually to students who have been nominated by their school Principal for the Joseph C. H. Johnson Scholarship. The value of each award is BD$1,500.

The following students have been awarded Bank of Bermuda Foundation Joseph C. H. Johnson Nominee Awards for the academic year 2017: Michelle Araujo, Cyana Burgess, Mikayla Jacome, Ava-Lynn Mayer, Kaisha Simons and Jari Tyrrell-Burrows.

Michelle Araujo – Bachelor of Science with a major in Kinesiology - Brescia University Michelle recently graduated from Mount Saint Agnes. She enjoys reading, listening to music and watching football. Her most memorable accomplishment was being inducted into the National Honour Society. She looks forward to her journey to becoming a physiotherapist.

Cyana Burgess – Bachelor of Actuarial Science - Georgia State University

Cyana is a recent graduate of Berkeley Institute and Bermuda College, under the dual enrollment programme. Her most memorable accomplishment was becoming a dual-enrollment student and graduating with an Associates of Arts, Business Administration from the Bermuda College before finishing high school. Cyana plans to become an Actuary and work in the International Business sector in Bermuda.

Jari Tyrrell-Burrows – Bachelor of Marketing & Communications - University of Westminster

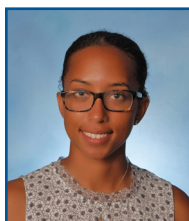

Jari is a recent graduate of Warwick Academy, where she held roles of Prefect and House Captain. She is most proud of exceeding her predicted grades at Warwick Academy. Jari plans to pursue a Masters or MBA in the future.

Bank of Bermuda Foundation Philip Butterfield Public School Scholarship 2017

The Philip Butterfield Public School Scholarship is awarded annually. The purpose is to provide financial support to a student who graduated or is graduating from a Bermuda public high school and wishes to further their education at an overseas university and can demonstrate financial need.

The scholarship is valued at BMD$30,000 per annum for up to 4 years.

This year's winner is Jordan Bascome.

Jordan Bascome – BA Science - Veterinary & Biomedical Sciences - The Pennsylvania State University

Jordan will be entering her Sophomore year at Penn State. One of her most memorable accomplishments was being recognized by a group of Bermudians as an ambassador for Rotary Exchange in Venezuela. She hopes to become the next Dermatologist on island with hopes to further improve the quality of the island's health.

Bank of Bermuda
FOUNDATION