Centennial Bermuda Foundation Welcomes Peter Goodall to Board

Centennial Bermuda Foundation has announced the appointment of Peter Goodall to its Board. Mr Goodall, MBA, is the Managing Director and owner of Salthouse Investments Ltd, is the founder of Bermuda's first mortgage brokerage, and founder of Property Skipper, the online property website.

He has already made valuable contributions to Centennial. Two years ago, he was welcomed to Centennial's Economic Participation Review Committee where his expertise in Financial and Digital Literacy, as well as Small Business and Entrepreneurship, has served that grant review committee exceptionally well.

Now as a Board member, and also sitting on the Investment Board sub-committee, Mr Goodall brings over a decade of experience in Asset management and financial markets, strategic financial insight, and he offers differing perspectives on local business challenges. His appointment supports Centennial's focus to respond effectively to Bermuda's evolving community needs.

Mr Goodall said, "I am passionate about supporting economic development for all Bermudians, whether this be through entrepreneurship, education, training, or workplace opportunities. Centennial is at the forefront locally of funding initiatives and creating opportunities in this space. To play an increasing role within Centennial is an honour."

Centennial Board Chair, Annarita Marion shared her appreciation for Mr Goodall. "We are honoured to welcome Peter, a leader with dedication and a deep desire to develop meaningful, positive partnerships in our community, which we do through equitable and accessible grantmaking."

The names of all Board, Staff and Review Committee members are listed on Centennial's website at www.centennial.bm/about

Centennial is Bermuda's largest private philanthropic organisation and funds many non-profit projects, initiatives, and post-secondary scholarships. Funding is offered in five focus areas; Community Health, Fundamental Needs, Cultural & Community Connections, Economic Participation, and Public Education, with review committees addressing the various focus areas.
